They Answered the Call...

The first official observance of Memorial Day, originally Decoration Day, was May 30, 1868, when flowers were placed on the graves of Union and Confederate soldiers at Arlington National Cemetery. By the end of the 19th century, Memorial Day ceremonies were being held throughout the nation. But it wasn't until after World War I that the day began honoring those who died while serving the U.S. in all wars. In 1971 an act of Congress declared Memorial Day a national holiday to be observed on the last Monday in May.

One hundred years ago, in 1918, two local soldiers died while serving in World War I. Captain Wendell P. Hay and Private William C. Schrader are buried in Bartlett Cemetery.

Hay was born in Bartlett in 1895 and attended Bartlett School, where his father was principal. After his father's death, he and his mother moved to Elgin. In 1917, Hay, a college agriculture major, entered the Army and sailed to France in June 1918. Under heavy barrage during a morning raid on September 7, he was killed by an enemy grenade. In July 1921, his body was returned home for final burial alongside his father, beneath a tombstone (pictured here) that reads, "He heard the call of death on honor's field, and answered: 'Here!'" His Gold Star Mother Amanda Hay Gulick was later interred in the family plot.

Schrader lived with his family on a farm in Wayne Township. He entered the Army in September 1918, at the height of the worldwide influenza pandemic. He was first stationed at Camp Grant, Rockford and later transferred to Camp Hancock, Georgia. "Another Camp Death" was the headline about his passing from the flu while at Camp Hancock. During World War I, influenza killed more U.S. soldiers than the war itself. Schrader is buried with his family, including his newly recognized Gold Star Mother Matilda Schrader.

Memorial Day Walk & VFW Event

For more than three decades, Bartlett has honored its deceased veterans with a Memorial Day Walk and Remembrance. Please join this hometown commemoration on May 28.

It begins at 10 a.m. at Bartlett Park, Oak and North Avenues, with an American Legion flag retirement ceremony. At 10:30 a.m. veterans, scouts, civic groups and bagpipers line up for the walk to Bartlett Cemetery, which steps off at 11 a.m. At the cemetery, the Remembrance continues with a brief program and, returning this year, a cannon salute to Bartlett's local heroes.

Also, Bartlett VFW Post 11018 will observe Memorial Day at the Bartlett Veteran's Memorial on Stearns Road on Saturday, 5/26 at 10 a.m. Contact Commander Emanuel (Manny) Bucur, 630-935-7722 for more information.

There's a New Chef in Town!

His name is Dustin Brooks and his full focus is on pleasing the palate of diners at Bartlett Hills Golf Club, whether they are there for a quick bite, a casual meal or a multi-course banquet.

Full disclosure -- Brooks has been at Bartlett Hills for two years but it wasn't until about four months ago that his title went from sous chef to executive chef. And in just that short amount of time, he has started making changes that already have elevated the dishes coming out of the clubhouse kitchen.

Brooks brings 17 years of experience to his head chef position, starting with his culinary training at Technology Center of DuPage while he was still in high school and additional coursework at College of DuPage. He has worked at food services giant Sodexo and did an apprenticeship with Unilever Foods, where he learned the ins and outs of a kitchen, including ordering from suppliers and menu creation. A 10-year stint at Marriott and 2 years at Hilton further finessed his food skills.

Brooks started with small tweaks to the banquet menu and sought out new food suppliers -- new bread company, new wedding cake bakers. He completely changed the plating for special events, such as weddings, customizing and personalizing so that the bride and groom know that "anything they want, we can do."

"We are trying to use as much sustainable product as we can, and are prepping more food inhouse," he added.

Restaurant diners and golfers who head to the grill room to satisfy their hunger will find new sandwiches, salads, flatbreads and small bites, such as Reuben eggrolls, that Brooks hopes will become a signature dish for Bartlett Hills.

Favorites, such as the Mother's Day Champagne Brunch, continue to be offered, but Brooks also is hoping to add some new themed dinners at the clubhouse in the months ahead. Visit www.bartletthills.com for information about Bartlett Hills restaurant hours, menu and banquet packages.

A Minute with the Mayor

In case you haven't yet heard, we've gone from talking and planning to groundbreaking for the Village's Lake Michigan water project.

On Tuesday, 3/6, I joined DuPage Water Commission Chairman Jim Zay, our Bartlett trustees and officials from Roselle and Hanover Park, to break ground on the construction of a five and a half mile-long water main from the DuPage Water Commission to the Village of Bartlett. Company representatives from AECOM and Benchmark Construction Company were also at the groundbreaking.

In December of 2016, the Village of Bartlett chose the DuPage Water Commission (DWC) to be its new water supplier, which will bring Lake Michigan water to Village residents. The new source water will replace the current mix of water purchased from Elgin and pumped from Village wells.

DWC worked closely with the Village to obtain agreements, including conducting a hydraulic analysis to determine the best route for the water main. The commission then hired the engineering firm AECOM to start the project design, coordinated with the Villages of Roselle and Hanover Park and consulted with private property owners to obtain easements through which the water main could be routed.

Securing the private property easement significantly shortened the final route, resulting in substantial cost savings. When complete, the water main will not only travel through this private property but under public roads, railroads and a river.

Pre-qualified contractors bid the construction of the water main and it was awarded to Benchmark Construction Company. We expect to complete the water main by May 2019.

Below is a timeline for the multi-step infrastructure improvements needed for Bartlett to transition to Lake Michigan water. To track our progress and see more information, you can visit "Bartlett's Drinking Water" on the Village of Bartlett website, www.village.bartlett.il.us.

Safer Tomorrow

Bartlett's Building Department observes Building Safety Month each May to raise awareness of the safety and fire codes that protect both the economic value and the structural integrity of the homes and buildings in the Village. These modern building codes, developed by the International Code Council and implemented by the Building Department through permitting and inspections, also include safeguards for natural disasters, such as snowstorms, tornadoes, wild fires, floods and earthquakes.

"Building Codes Save Lives," the theme for Building Safety Month 2018, encourages you to recognize the importance of building safe and resilient construction and to obtain proper permits before you start a home construction project this spring and summer.

Building permits are required because your home or business is an investment. If your construction project does not comply with Village codes, the value of your investment is reduced. Property insurers may not cover work done without permits and inspections. If you decide to sell a home or building that has had modifications without a permit, you may be required to make costly repairs. Also, by following code guidelines, the completed project will meet minimum standards of safety and will be less likely to cause injury to you, your family, your friends or future owners.

Visit www.buildingsafetymonth.org for more information from the International Code Council.

Home Improvement Day

Get all the building permit information you need to start your next home improvement project at the Building Department's Home Improvement Day on Saturday, June 2 outside Zeigler's Ace Hardware, 136 Bartlett Plaza.

Village staff will be there from 9 to 11 a.m. to answer your building code questions and provide other helpful information. They can guide you through the details for proper permitting and offer tips so that your home not only looks great when you are done with your project but can be safely enjoyed for many years.

Did You Know?

...that recycling construction and demolition (C&D) materials (brick, wood, drywall, metals, glass including windows, salvaged building components, etc.) reduces greenhouse gas emissions and other pollutants by reducing the need to extract raw materials and their associated transportation. In addition reusing or repurposing C&D materials helps you avoid the cost of new construction materials.

Several local companies in or near DuPage County provide recycling service and trucking specifically for C&D.

The DuPage County Construction and Demolition Debris Recycling Guide includes the names and phone numbers for some of these companies along with helpful tips and information. To obtain this guide, contact the county's Environmental Division, 630-407-6700 or email recycle@dupageco.org.

Water & Sewer Rates Increase May 1

The total cost of infrastructure improvements required for Bartlett's transition to Lake Michigan water is estimated at more than $51 million. Most of the project is being financed through loans from the DuPage Water Commission and the Illinois EPA. Moving forward with this project requires a water rate increase effective May 1. The water rate will increase by 27% overall. The new water rate will be $9.70 per 1,000 gallons.

Sewer rates are also increasing for infrastructure improvements required at the wastewater treatment facility in DuPage County, the excess flow facility in Cook County, and for other rehabilitation projects throughout the collection system. Sewer rate increases in Cook and DuPage Counties are based on major capital project costs in the county.

Sewer rates for Cook County will increase 24% to $13.71 plus $1.14 per 1,000 gallons; for DuPage County the increase is 30% to $16.94 plus $3.03 per 1,000 gallons; and for Kane County the increase is 8% to $11.94 plus $0.99 per 1,000 gallons.

Both the water and sewer rate increases will begin with the May 1, 2018 bills. Rates are expected to increase again in 2019. Below is a chart showing the increase to a bill for 6,000 gallons of water, broken out for each county. More information about the water project can be found on the "Bartlett's Drinking Water" page on the Village website, www.village.bartlett.il.us.

Brush & Yard Waste Collection Starts in April

Starting in April, Groot's brush collection will replace the Bartlett Public Works brush collection program. Groot will collect brush weekly, rather than two times per month, April through November. Brush must be bundled with degradable twine in 2 foot by 2 foot by 4 foot long bundles. See the photo for brush that is bundled correctly.

Yard rakings, grass clippings, garden material and small twigs are considered yard waste, which also is collected April through November by Groot Industries.

Residents can use generic bags with Groot stickers applied for all yard waste. Bartlett Village Hall, Ace, Jewel, and the Walgreens on 59 and Stearns Road are all expected to carry the Groot stickers ($2.50). Any leftover Republic Services labeled yard bags can be used through the 2018 season.

Tree City, U.S.A.

More than 3,400 communities have made the commitment to becoming a Tree City USA, and the Village of Bartlett is now one of them.

To achieve Tree City USA status a community must meet “four core standards of sound urban forestry management: maintaining a tree board or department, having a community tree ordinance, spending at least $2 per capita on urban forestry and celebrating Arbor Day.”

Village arborist Sarah Perry (on the left in the photo) and management analyst Tyler Isham worked hard all year to complete all the requirements for becoming a Tree City USA Community.

The Village's new tree ordinance and the Arbor Day Proclamation will be on the agenda at the April 17 Village Board meeting. Perry and Isham will present the new plaque at the meeting.

Everyone is invited to celebrate Earth Day with the Bartlett Nature Center and the Bartlett Parks Foundation at their family-friendly, environmental awareness event. See a variety of demonstrations, educational exhibits, and participate in hands-on activities.

The natural world around us is always changing, but one thing that hasn't changed is this free annual event. No reservation required. Open to all ages and held from noon to 4 p.m. on Saturday, 4/21 at Bartlett Nature Center, 2054 W. Stearns Road, James "Pate" Philip State Park.
